

DEPORT THY NEIGHBOUR

Vote Conservative

The Conservatives refuse to guarantee the rights of millions of EU nationals who live in Britain and have disregarded the millions of UK nationals living outside the UK. Their track record includes incorrect deportation of students, £35,000 income threshold for non-EU citizens, and breaking their promise on helping child refugees. Despite all these harsh measures, immigration figures still did not decrease significantly under May's tenure as Home Secretary. Don't vote for ideological migration policies, which undermine community cohesion, damage the British economy and destroy lives. #DontVoteConservative

TAX THE POOR

Vote Conservative

LET'S BUILD A ONE-PARTY
STATE

Vote Conservative

When Theresa May called for a snap general election, she claimed that the opposition was jeopardising the government, a claim that is not only factually false but also extremely dangerous. By branding any opposition as “saboteurs” and “enemies of the state”, the Conservatives and the right-wing media are undermining democracy. Let’s not forget that 80% of our country’s printed media is owned and controlled by just five billionaires.

#DontVoteConservative

FOR ED
MILIBAND'S POLICIES

Vote Conservative

HEALTHCARE IS FOR WIMPS

Vote Conservative

The Conservatives fought a legal battle against reforms to Personal Independence Payments which would extend disability benefit to 160,000 people with conditions such as dementia. The Conservatives also stood by as the Red Cross declared a “humanitarian crisis” in the NHS. The charity made its declaration in January after two patients died while waiting for treatment on trolleys in corridors at the Worcestershire Royal Hospital. Just a few days later, more than 20 hospitals issued “black alerts”, meaning they were unable to guarantee emergency care. Dr Mark Holland, president of the Society for Acute Medicine, said: “For a long time we have been saying that the NHS is on the edge. But people dying after long spells in hospital corridors shows that the NHS is now broken”. #DontVoteConservative

DEBATES ARE FOR LOSERS

Vote Conservative

Theresa May has told the BBC that she will not take part in TV debates ahead of the planned general election. Mr Corbyn said the PM's stance was "rather strange", adding: "I say to Theresa May, who said this election was about leadership, Come on and show some." The return of Lynton Crosby as Conservative campaign manager, now a Sir in recognition of the scurrilous campaign he ran in 2015, provides advance notice of what to expect: smears of leading Labour figures, the ceaseless opposition of Labour 'chaos' to Tory 'stability', scapegoating and fear-mongering over immigration, spreading untruths about public spending, and latterly, the need for a strong hand to see down the pesky Eurocrats in the Brexit negotiations. "Let's have the debates. It's what democracy needs and what the British people deserve." #DontVoteConservative

CLOSE OUR LIBRARIES

Vote Conservative

Since the Conservatives entered Number 10 more than 400 full-time libraries have closed in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland – with spending dropping by around £180 million. Nick Poole of the Institute of Library and Information Professionals said : “It’s hard to understand the impact of these cuts when you’re well-off, have easy access to the internet and can buy the books you want. But for millions of poor families, jobseekers and people with disabilities, a library is a lifeline.” #DontVoteConservative

LAY BACK AND THINK OF ENGLAND

Vote Conservative

SHIT ON YOUR OWN DOORSTEP

Vote Conservative

DISABLED PEOPLE ARE ONLY PRETENDING

Vote Conservative

Disabled people won't be able to pay for essential items because of government cuts to benefits, MPs have claimed. The new tranche of cuts to the Employment and Support Allowance (ESA) were meant to encourage disabled people to find work. But that's been slammed by the Commons Work and Pensions Committee who said that it was: "ambiguous at best". From April, new claimants will be hit with a reduction of £29.05 in their entitlement, which will fall to £73.10 a week, the same rate as people currently claiming Job Seekers Allowance. According to the charity Scope, disabled people's extra costs average out at about £550 a month, which £29 a week won't even come close to covering. Liz Sayce, from Disability Rights UK, has this to say on the cut: "We're not aware of one single disability employment or benefits expert who thinks this particular cut will be an incentive for disabled people to get a job." #DontVoteConservative

LIVE

WITH YOUR

PARENTS

Vote Conservative

The failure to replace council housing stock sold off by Thatcher in the 1980s was great for buy-to-let landlords, but terrible for the next generation. A deregulated private rented sector offers a toxic mix of high rents and insecure tenancies. Home ownership is at its lowest level in three decades, especially among younger Britons, who often can't afford to leave their family home. To make matters worse, jobseekers aged 18 to 21 are no longer able to get Housing Benefit. Charities have warned this could force thousands of young people onto the streets. #DontVoteConservative

DEMOCRACY

IS

OVERRATED

Vote Conservative

Theresa May said she is calling a general election because parliament was blocking Brexit. However, that's not true: three-quarters of this parliament voted for Article 50 and two-thirds of the Lords voted for Article 50. The day after she announced her decision, the Daily Mail's headline read 'CRUSH THE SABOTEURS'. May did not condemn this call. Paul Dacre, the newspaper's editor, has been treated to a private dinner by May in Downing Street, the only media figure to receive hospitality from the PM during the first six months she was in post. #DontVoteConservative

PARTY

BEFORE

COUNTRY

Vote Conservative

IF YOU BELIEVE
JESUS WAS WHITE

Vote Conservative

STRONG

AND STABLE

LEADERSHIP

Vote Conservative

Until June 8th, Theresa May and other Conservatives will repeat the phrase “strong and stable leadership” at least ten times every minute. You deserve better. Fewer soundbites. More politics.

#DontVoteConservative